How do I figure out which car is right for me?

You can use the ACRISS system detailed above to find the car that suits your needs. This is an internationally recognised code that will ensure that you get the same standard of vehicle wherever you rent.

What kind of car should I rent for my holiday in Canada?

This depends on where you're travelling, how many people are travelling and the style of driving you intend to do. Cars range from small (economy, compact) to larger size cars (intermediate, full size), to 4WD's, convertibles and luxury vehicles. For short trips with fewer passengers opt for the smaller cars; for longer trips with the family then a larger car, van or SUV would suit. There are plenty of car rental options to choose from; it all depends on your personal needs.

Can I hire an automatic car in Canada?

Most rental companies in Canada only hire automatic cars, so you'll have plenty of automatic's to choose from.

Do I need a credit card to collect my vehicle?

Yes. Car rental suppliers will usually freeze the excess of the vehicle (from CAD500 + Tax) which will be refunded when the hire car is returned at the end of the rental.

Should I hire a GPS for driving in Canada?

GPS hire is available from Auto Europe Australia and delivered directly to your home prior to departure. GPS units can also be requested direct with some suppliers, however this will be at their own rates. If time is short, or you would simply prefer to collect your GPS unit when you pick up your car hire, this may be the option for you.

Collecting at an airport in Canada

At most Canadian airports, rental companies will have a desk in the arrivals hall and vehicles will be located within walking distance. However, at smaller airports you may be required to collect your vehicle from a downtown depot. Usually a courtesy transfer will be provided from the airport to the depot in this instance. Auto Europe Australia offer all-inclusive prices which generally include any location/airport fees that may otherwise apply. Remember to check at time of booking to ensure your rental price will include all airport fees.

Car Hire FAQs

Can I collect my rental car in one Canadian city and drop it off in another Canadian city?

Yes, this is certainly possible, however in most cases there will be a one-way fee payable when you collect your rental. Check with your car rental supplier before you travel regarding any additional costs.

I'd like to visit USA on my holiday then return back to Canada. Is this possible?

In most cases, yes. There may be some restrictions travelling to Alaska, often this depends on the discretion of the collection depot. Make sure that you advise your car rental company before you travel as additional insurance may be required, depending on the pick up depot and the supplier.

Can I collect my rental car in Canada and drop it off in the USA?

Yes, this is possible yet there are restrictions with many suppliers. For example most suppliers only allow international one ways from Canada to northern US states such as Seattle, Detroit, New York and Boston. There will be a one-way drop off fee payable at the time of collection and a minimum number of rental days (usually a minimum of 2 days).

Can I take my rental car onto unpaved roads in Canada?

Car rental companies will not permit travel on unsealed or unpaved roads. Travel only on sealed, government maintained roads, otherwise your insurance will become void.

Can I drive in snow or icy conditions in Canada?

Most car rental vehicles in Canada come equipped with all-weather tyres, so driving in the snow is permitted. Check with your car rental supplier if you require any further equipment for driving in the winter months. Remember that conditions in winter can be extreme, so use your common sense and drive with caution on icy roads.

What do I do if I want to extend my car rental whilst I'm in Canada?

Once the car rental has commenced you will have to call the depot where you initially collected the vehicle. If the car is available to be extended, you will be offered additional days at the local rate.

Rental Vehicle Insurance

Car Rental companies in Canada will normally include:

- Third Party insurance and Compulsory Insurance will be included in your car hire rate. This covers you for other people's injuries and damage to their vehicle.
- Collision Damage Waiver (CDW): This limits your financial liability for damage to the rented vehicle and is normally included in pre-paid car hire prices. Rentals are normally subject to liability excess, which can be reduced at the time you collect your rental car or by taking out Auto Europe Excess Refund Insurance.
- Theft Loss Cover: this limits your financial liability for the loss or theft of the rented vehicle and is generally included in prepaid car rental rates.
- Personal Accident Insurance: this covers the driver for personal injuries, generally not included in your car rental rates. It is considered to be an optional extra that you can take upon collection of the car, however it is usually included in your general Travel Insurance Policy.

Auto Europe Excess Refund Insurance

When renting a vehicle, the rental rates include basic insurance. However, in the event that the vehicle is stolen or accidentally damaged, there is usually an insurance excess amount which the driver is liable to pay to the rental company. To avoid any unexpected costs opt for Auto Europe Excess Refund Insurance which will offer a reimbursement for the supplier's damage and theft excess to a maximum for AU$5,000. Simply add this onto your car rental booking prior to departure and you could save thousands of dollars in case of an accident. To find out more, simply call Auto Europe on 1300 656 601 or visit the Auto Europe website.

The Auto Europe Hire Car Excess Refund Insurance is managed by Accident & Health International Underwriting Pty Limited, ABN 26 053 335 952, AFSL 238261 and underwritten by CGU Insurance Limited, ABN 27 004 478 371, AFSL 238291.

Driving Rules

Advice

- Drive on the right side of the road; the driver sits on the left hand side of the car.
- Respect the environment – don't litter. Keep your rubbish with you in the car until it can be disposed of properly.
- On country roads, be aware of wild animals that may wonder onto the road. Canada has a large population of moose, elk and deer.
- In Québec, road signs are written only in French.
- If you are stopped by the police while driving in Canada, remain in your vehicle, switch the engine off and wait for instructions by the officer.
- In winter a flashing blue light will define a snow removal vehicle, so stay well back when following.
- Be aware of road conditions, especially driving in winter as heavy snowfall and icy conditions can make road trips hazardous. Snow tyres are required in some provinces.
- Canadian roads can be quite long, so carry food and water with you on lengthy trips.
- In Canada it is legal to turn right at a red light after stopping (except in Montreal and Québec City). If you arrive at an intersection with no traffic lights, you must give way to the vehicles that had arrived first. If two cars arrive at the same time the car to the right has the right-of-way.

Laws

- Daytime headlights are required. Turn on your headlights whilst driving, regardless of the time of day.
- There are a road tolls in Canada - keep small denominations of Canadian currency with you while driving.
- Motorcyclists must wear a helmet.
- Unless signposted, the maximum speed limit in Canada is 50km/hr and 80km/hr on highways. The speed limit on the rural highways is 100km/hr. Speeding may be monitored by speed cameras or radar traps.
- It is illegal to carry radar detectors in Québec, Ontario, Manitoba, the Yukon and Northwest Territories.
- It is illegal to talk on a mobile phone whilst driving in Canada.
- If a school bus stops and flashes red lights, traffic in both directions must come to a complete stop.
- Drivers must carry proof of insurance, a driver's licence and registration papers at all times. If you are driving to Canada from the USA you will go through one of the 22 border crossings between the two countries. Make sure that you have your passport, licence and car rental agreement with you.
- Drinking alcohol and driving is forbidden and is strictly enforced in every province. It is a crime to drive with a blood alcohol limit of 0.05 or above. Be smart: don't drink and drive. As a tourist exceeding this limit you could be deported.

Licence Requirements

A full driving licence is required to drive in Canada. All drivers must have held a full valid driving licence for a minimum of one year. Australian residents are not required by law to have an international drivers licence, although it is recommended since an international licence holds more credibility with Canadian traffic police. Contact your local motoring association for further information.

Min & Max Age Requirements

Min Driving Age: Usually 21, however in some provinces the minimum age is 25.

Young Driver's Surcharge: Drivers aged 21-24 years may be charged from CAD$25+tax per day.

Max Driving Age: There is no maximum driving age in Canada. In some cases, aged drivers may be required to hold a letter from their GP stating they are healthy and fit to drive. Check with Auto Europe Australia for further details.

Seatbelts

Seatbelts are compulsory for all passengers. Fines vary for offences in each territory and can be up to $300 for infringements. Children less than 18kg must be secured in an appropriate child seat or booster seat whilst in a moving vehicle, and children under 12 should travel in the back seat at all times.

Icefield Parkway - Lake Louise to Jasper

The Icefields Parkway, Highway 93 is the road which connects Jasper, Alberta and Lake Louise. The unbelievable sights along the way are the reason National Geographic Traveller Magazine identified the whole Banff-Jasper route as one of the top 20 "drives of a lifetime".

The drive from Lake Louise to Jasper is 230 kilometres and will take a little over 3 hours of solid driving time, however be sure to allow more time to admire the famous breathtaking scenery many travel long and far to observe. This drive is truly one of the most spectacular driving routes in the world and most certainly one of Canada's national treasures.

The Viking Trail

The Viking Trail begins at the intersection of Route 1 and Route 430 near Deer Lake and is the largest themed highway in Newfoundland and Labrador. The trail stretches over coastland which presents opportunities to see 10,000 year old icebergs and witness whales migrate.

The land along the route was discovered by Vikings 1,000 years ago and as such there is a rich cultural presence to the area. The museums along the way are filled with the artefacts of archaeological digs and ancient native settlement at L'Anse aux Meadows National historic site will have you thinking you have stepped back in time. This route is also the only way to access the UNESCO World Heritage Sites at Gros Morne National Park of Canada and L'Anse aux Meadows National Historic Site of Canada.

The Cabot Trail

The Cabot Trail in Nova Scotia is one of the most famous scenic drives in Canada. The route is approximately 298 kms long and loops around the northern tip of Cape Breton Island. The drive altogether is approximately 5 hours, however this time does not include any stopovers. Once you get on the Cabot Trail, you must either complete the loop or turn around and go back, no roads allow you to cut across the centre of Cape Breton Island.

Along the way you will find an abundance of activities to do and see. Some visitors set aside two or three days to explore everything that lies along the Cabot Trail. Regardless of whether you're an amateur or an experienced hiker, Cape Breton Highlands National Park offer world class hiking trails which are sure to please. If you're more interested in delving into the cultural history of the area, there is an abundant supply of museums and galleries along the way.

Northwest Canada

The northwest of Canada includes the Northwest Territories, Nunavut and Yukon and is a playground for thrill seekers and nature enthusiasts. If you love an adventure and are keen to explore everything the great outdoors has to offer, you will find yourself at home in the Northwest. This rugged terrain is ideal for the hardy traveller. The north west is full of the unexpected, yet the one thing you can be sure to expect is a never ending supply of activities to keep you busy. Follow a hiking trail through a national park, spend the day white water rafting, canoeing or kayaking.

Attractions

Northwest Territories

Enjoy the water activities on offer - Experience the thrill of white-water rafting or go canoeing down the Nahanni River in the southern Mackenzie Mountains.

Visit one or all of the five national parks - Go hiking along one of the many trails and absorb these beautifully preserved parks

Experience the Indigenous Culture - Take a tour through one of the villages and see how the tribal people live.

Nunavut

Discover something new - Try an authentic Inuit experience by going dog sledding or ski-dooing

Spend a lazy afternoon fishing - Cast a line and you might catch a crimson arctic char or a trophy lake trout.

Climb a mountain range - If you're an experienced climber, Baffin Island is the an ideal choice.

Yukon

Experience the History Yukon has to offer - Visit S.S. Keno Historic Site of Canada, the Keno City Mining Museum or the Diamond Tooth Gertie's Gambling Hall.

Take a river adventure - Even if you're an experienced kayaker or rafter, a river adventure through Yukon is one like no other.

Events

March

Spring Fling - Travel to Norman Wells for a parade, snowmobile racing, ice golf, barbecue and bonfires

June

July

Nunavut Day - A public holiday celebrated on July 9 to commemorate an agreement between the Canadian government and Aboriginal Inuit people.

Dawson City Music Festival - A small, inventive music festival in Yukon

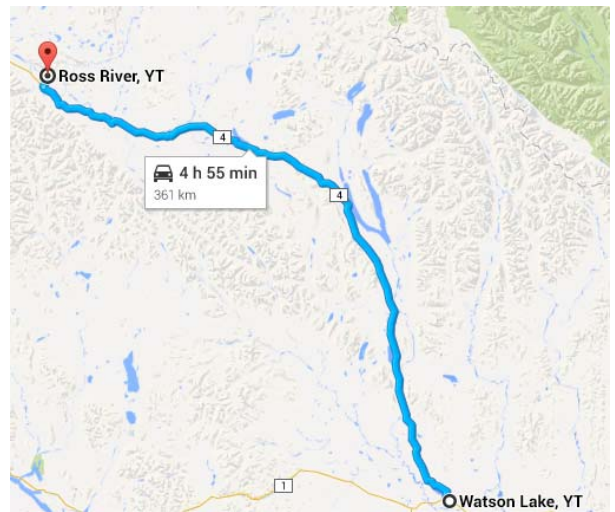

Self Drive: North West

Campbell to Canol: Yukon

The route from Watson Lake to Ross River along the Robert Campbell Highway is approximately 360km and will take around five hours. This region is one of the Yukon's least populated regions, so you can expect a quiet, remote driving experience. This untouched wilderness is filled with an array of things to do and see. Visit Watson Lake at the world famous Sign Post Forest, explore the Ross River or take a trip to a former hard-rock mining town.

The gravel roads of Canol Road and Campbell Highway are maintained only in the summer months, which is the ideal and safest way to drive. The picturesque scenery and luscious green pastures you will pass on this route are well worth the adventurous roads.

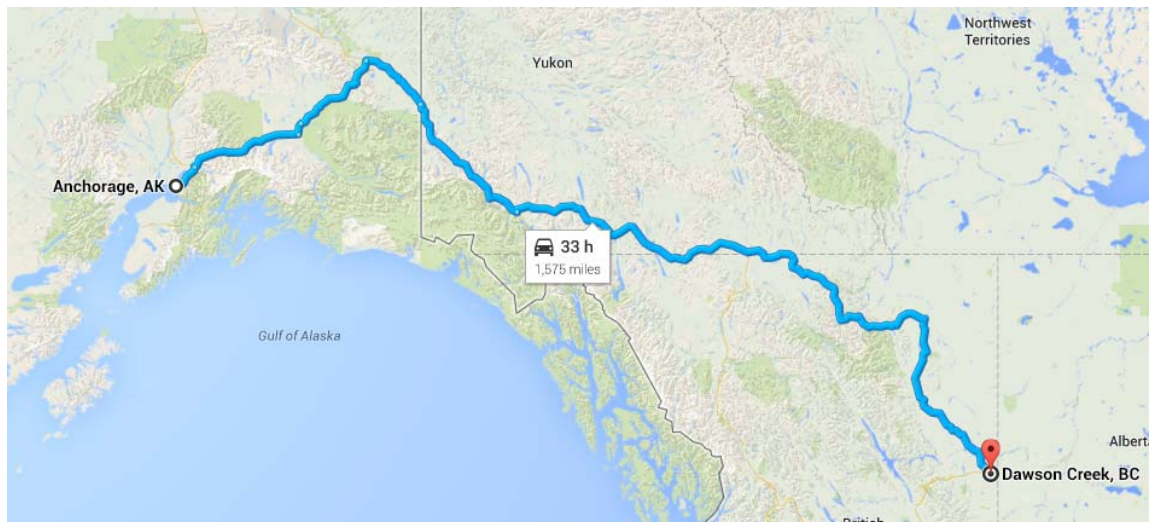

Alaska Highway

This major driving route connects Anchorage, Alaska to Dawson Creek, British Columbia Canada, running through Whitehorse, Yukon. This route was the pioneer road that was cut through the wilderness in the 1940's, a mere single lane trail nicknamed the Alcan Highway. Today the Alaska Highway is considered an adventure drive and the conditions are far improved.

The Yukon portion of the Alaska Highway runs from Watson Lake, BC to Beaver Creek at the Alaskan border. Drive this 910 km stretch to enjoy magnificent scenery, diverse cultures and an intriguing history. Stop in Teslin, home to the indigenous Tlingit people. Then, visit Whitehorse, a town surrounded by forests, mountains and the Yukon River.

You'll continue on through the Kuane National Park to experience a true wilderness in this unique and spectacular part of the world.

Stay Healthy & Stay Safe

Stay Healthy

Canadian hospitals and medical services are among the world's best in terms of quality, but can be very expensive for those without insurance. Your comprehensive travel insurance should cover any medical costs, including medical evacuation. A stay in hospital can cost you from CAD$1,000 per day, so make sure that your insurance covers you for the whole time you'll be away and be clear on what is not included.

In the event of an emergency, call 911 or 112 for an ambulance that will take you to the hospital emergency room (ER). For routine medical care, you can go to a walk-in clinic. Pharmacies and drug stores carry most prescriptions, however, as with most other medical care in Canada, it can be expensive. It's best to have any prescriptions filled before you go, and to carry all medication along with a letter from your GP explaining your medical conditions.

Stay Safe

Canada is considered one of the safest countries to live and to travel, although it is always wise to remain vigilant and continue using the same safety precautions you exercise at home. Violent crime in Canada does occur, however this is not a serious problem. It's always a good idea to keep your valuables out of view in your parked car.

It's always wise to avoid showing off expensive jewellery and cash in public. Keep your money and credit cards in a safe place and respect the local customs and laws. Your common sense is the most valuable possession you can have.

Be aware of the natural environment. Parts of Canada can be prone to winter storms that include ice storms and blizzards, particularly in eastern Canada. Carry an emergency kit with you in the car. Kits should be available for sale in Canada. Especially in winter, make sure you're wearing adequate winter clothing to avoid hypothermia.

Emergency

Money Matters

Currency

Canadian Dollar (CAD = C$) = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of C$100, C$50, C$20, C$10 and C$5. Coins are in denominations of C$2(toonie), C$1(loonie), and 25¢(quarter), 10¢(dime), 5¢(nickel) and 1¢(penny).

Banking Hours

Standard banking hours are Monday to Thursday 9.30am to 4.00pm, and most banks are open until 6.00pm on Fridays.

Credit & Debit Cards

Major credit cards are widely accepted across Canada, except in remote rural communities where cash is the only option. Carry a copy of your credit card numbers separately from the cards and report any lost or stolen credit cards immediately.

Tax

Goods and services tax, or the GST, is a 5% federal tax applied to most goods and services provided in Canada. There are other regional taxes, listed as follows:

PST (provisional sales tax) and HST (harmonised sales tax) range from 5-13% depending on region, province and product.

GST is added at the cash register and not to the price tag of the product.

Tipping

Tipping is common in Canada. Usually gratuities are not added onto restaurant bills, however you should reward good service 15-20% of the total bill. Hairdressers, barbers and taxi drivers should be tipped about 15%.

Porters, bellhops and doormen at hotels, airports and railway stations should be tipped $1-2 per item carried.

Useful Information

Language

Both English and French are spoken in Canada and most Canadians are bilingual. While English is the dominant language in the majority of the country, French is the chief language in Québec.

Geography

Canada is the second largest country in the world, second only to Russia. Canada takes up the major portion of North America and is bordered to the south by the 'Lower 48' of the USA, Alaska to the north west, with the Atlantic Ocean in the east and the Pacific Ocean in the west. The landscape of Canada is diverse, with great prairies in the central area, with the Rocky Mountains to the west, and Niagara Falls, the St. Lawrence River and the Great Lakes in the south east. The Arctic Tundra lies to the north of the country close to the polar ice cap.

Time Zone

Canada is divided into 6 different time zones:

Pacific Time: GMT 8: Yukon, British Columbia (GMT 7 from second Sunday in March to first Sunday in November).

Mountain Time: GMT 7: Alberta, Northwest Territories, Nunavut (GMT - 6 from second Sunday in March to first Sunday in November).

Central Time: GMT 6: Saskatchewan, Manitoba (GMT 5 from second Sunday in March to first Sunday in November).
